Important Message from the South Carolina Department of Mental Health

The South Carolina Department of Mental Health is aware that Change Healthcare, a unit of UnitedHealth Group, was impacted by a cybersecurity incident in late February, 2024. Some insurers are contracted with Change Healthcare for various functions, including insurance billing. While the situation continues to evolve, the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) is investigating this incident. SCDMH has become aware that there is some potential health data from SCDMH that may have been compromised in this breach.

We take very seriously our role of safeguarding your personal information and using it in an appropriate manner. SCDMH apologizes for any stress and worry this situation has caused you and is doing everything it can to rectify the situation.

United Healthcare has provided a call center to offer free assistance with credit monitoring, identity theft, and other support for anyone impacted by the breach. You may access these services at 1-866-262-5342 and visit www.changeybersupport.com for more information. You may also call your health care plan, or local center or facility privacy officer at SCDMH with any questions or concerns about the loss of your personal information during normal business hours.

The following is a list of SCDMH centers/facilities and numbers you can call with any concerns.*
